Learning about new government decisions after they're carved in stone doesn't help a select few.

That's why they depend on National Journal

No other publication provides complete weekly coverage of what the government is doing and what it means to subscribers. Not one. Not a newsletter, trade magazine or academic journal. Only National Journal is consistently first with the definitive, analytical word on the full range of government activities as they happen.

Changes

Incisive, comprehensive analyses of emerging trends and issues keep a select few from being caught off guard. Subscribers find out what's happening while there's still time to prepare . . . and react accordingly.

Plans

National Journal outlines the positions, strategies and tactics of the players in the Administration, Congress, agencies and special interest groups so our subscribers know what their friends—and opponents—are up to.

Issues

The "At A Glance" section tracks the progress of 20 important issues confronting Congress and the White House in quick weekly capsules that are written for quick, easy comprehension.

Players

Our weekly "People" section is the only source available today that charts the job-to-job movements of key policy makers in government, business, labor, interest groups and media.

Contacts

National Journal's staff capitalizes on its Washington location and respected position to get exclusive interviews from the movers and shakers at all levels of government. Not only the ones with their pictures on the front page, but also those behind the scenes who shape the way decisions are made.

Extra Service—
Questions Answered At No Cost.

Subscribers may call our research desk, staffed by six professional researchers, whenever they need answers to questions on the status of bills, congressional votes, government documents, previous articles and other inside items.

Extra Service—Bonus Publications

Twice a year subscribers receive cumulative indexes to all subjects, people and organizations discussed in National Journal. And our exclusive White House and Congressional telephone directories are automatically sent out free to all subscribers.

"We read all this, and more—so our subscribers don't have to!"

Pictured above are but a few of the more than 425 newsletters, magazines, newspapers, special reports, government publications and other resource materials that are monitored constantly at National Journal.

Our staff reads them all, sifts out and confirms the truly important material, and then fleshes it out through personal interviews with sources and contacts throughout the entire government.

The result: The country's only all-in-one weekly analysis of the full range of activities of the federal government.

National Journal. For a select few.

If more than even just a few words of this information interests you, you're probably one of a select few who would benefit from a subscription to National Journal.

Order your own personal subscription today by returning the convenient order card below. Note that National Journal's exclusive reports, analyses and services come to you every single week at a very mere fraction of what you'd have to pay a professional researcher to assemble just a small portion of the kind of information you'll receive.

Or some subscribers prefer to look at the cost of their subscription as about the same as a subscription to a typical Washington newsletter or conference that covers just one agency or issue—even though National Journal covers the entire federal government and all the important issues as well!

Send the order card today. Your order will be acted upon the very day it is received.

National Journal's Time-Honored Guarantee

If at any time, for any reason, you decide our service isn't worth much more to you than the price you paid, just let us know and we'll promptly refund the entire unused portion of your subscription price—no questions asked.
